Memphis, Nov. 30th '51

My Dear Wife

I have been here for the last two days, and leave this morning for Hernando.

I recd. your letter directed to Hernando, and was grieved to hear that George had been sick. I did not receive your letter at Paducah. I hope he has entirely recovered.

I have bot. sugar, coffee, candles and 40 yds. of carpeting, and will expect them to be taken home by Andrews' wagons. They are at Mr. Ornes business house.

I hope to get off from Hernando in one week at furthest.

Andrew has heard, I suppose, of the death of Mr. Barnes. Tell him he should see to Barnes' business, and have an eye to the person in whose hands it is left.

I leave here in a few minutes & shall expect to receive another letter at Hernando. I spent yesterday evening at Mr. Ornes' - all well.

Yours, Husband Hugh R. Miller

Mrs. H. R. Miller
Pontiac
Miss.

To the person to whom left.
in a few minutes
to receive another letter
I have put up
all well.
Yours truly
H. R. Miller
